Fulfil your ambition for a truly prestigious degree

- Progress to University of London Colleges with the UK’s leading pre-university provider.
- Eight University of London College partners welcome applications from our students for many of their degree programmes and, in some cases, offer guaranteed progression based on specific criteria.
- London FoundationCampus is part of Cambridge Education Group, who has been preparing students for the UK’s top universities since 1952, and was the first private provider of university Foundation programmes in the UK in 1985.

Part of the University of London environment from day one

- Study within the world-class facilities of Birkbeck College in the heart of academic London, next to other University of London Colleges such as SOAS and UCL.
- Access to Birkbeck’s library, the University of London gym facilities and cafeteria.
- Study, live and make friends with University of London students from across the world.

A comprehensive study programme

- Comprehensive and intensive 25-hour-per-week combined academic and English programme.
- Compulsory modules include:
  - regular mock IELTS tests using external examiners held at London FoundationCampus, including intensive IELTS preparation
  - one free IELTS examination per student per programme.
- You will be accompanied to regular Open Lectures held by LSE and UCL.
  - seminars, lectures and tutorials designed to give you an introduction to university life in the UK, within a supportive environment.

Quality assured

- London FoundationCampus is reviewed regularly by the Quality Assurance Agency (QAA), who is responsible for maintaining standards across the UK university system.
- Maximum class size of 18-25 for English means that teaching can be tailored to your individual needs.
- Your own personal tutor and regular tutorial meetings to ensure successful progression.
- A proven track record of supporting students to progress to the best universities in the UK. Read more about our outstanding results and destinations on page 26.

Life and support outside the classroom

- A comprehensive induction programme will help you settle into London life, with the FoundationCampus team helping you open a bank account, get an Oyster card (essential for travelling around the capital on buses and the Underground) and register with the police if you need to.
- Student ambassadors to help you settle into your new life at London FoundationCampus. Opportunities for you to become an ambassador to help future students.
- Our team can give you advice on transferring from another institution in the UK and changing your visa.
- There are students from over 50 nationalities currently studying at London FoundationCampus. You will gain confidence in your use of English by studying, living and socialising with students from a truly diverse mix of nations, with classmates from Asia, the Middle East, Africa and South America.
- Enrichment programme including national holiday celebrations, cultural awareness events, charity fundraising and international food and film clubs organised by the Social committee at London FoundationCampus.

THE COURTAULD INSTITUTE OF ART UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

The Courtauld Institute of Art is one of the world's leading centres for the study of art history and conservation. The Courtauld prides itself on offering a truly memorable learning experience. Study in the spectacular Somerset House in the heart of London, on the banks of the Thames.

- The Courtauld Gallery is home to one of the finest small art museums in the world and an innovative programme of exhibitions.
- One of the largest History of Art departments in the UK.
- Distinctive small group teaching (12:1 staff/student ratio).
- Renowned for breadth and depth of coverage – from antiquity to the contemporary and geographical range extends to early Christian Byzantium, early modern Persia and contemporary China.
- Research-led approach to teaching - 80% of The Courtauld's research is recognised as either world leading or internationally excellent (RAE 2008).
- 94% of students are satisfied with the teaching they have received (NSS 2012).
- 97% of graduates are in employment and/or further study within six months of graduating (HESA 2011/2012).
- The Courtauld has over 5,000 alumni, many of whom fulfil key roles as museum directors, curators, academics, conservators, critics, journalists, and various roles in the commercial art world. They include directors of the British Museum, the Tate, the Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York), and the National Gallery of Canada.

HEYTHROP COLLEGE UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Heythrop College is the specialist Philosophy and Theology College of the University of London. Established in 1614, it is the oldest College of the University of London, and one of the oldest higher education (HE) establishments in the UK. Originally founded by the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits), Heythrop retains a modern Catholic ethos, and offers an educational experience that respects all faiths and perspectives.

With just under 1,000 students, it is a College where the scale is human and not impersonal, and through the teaching and learning they are able to attend to the needs of the individual.

- The only public HE institution outside of Oxford or Cambridge to offer one-to-one tutorials.
- Small class sizes to facilitate learning through discussion, and students will be known by name to members of academic teaching staff who will assist in their studies.
- The specialist nature of the College ensures students have access to an unrivalled variety of modules from within the fields of philosophy, theology, religion, ethics and interreligious relations.
- Each of the academics are specialists in their field and together they are one of the largest faculties of Philosophy and Theology in the country.
- 92% of students are satisfied with the teaching quality, well above the national average of 86% in the National Student Satisfaction Survey.
- Located in the beautiful Kensington Square in one of the most exclusive areas of London, the College offers onsite accommodation and immediate access to a bustling high street and Hyde Park.
- Graduates possess skills which are extremely attractive to employers in a wide range of industries. Students learn to think critically and analytically about challenging ideas and to solve problems in a variety of novel ways. Heythrop graduates have gone on to become lawyers, journalists, teachers, NGO and business professionals in a vast number of different sectors.

INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

The Institute of Education (IOE) is the UK's leading university for education and related disciplines. It is the University of London's specialist education institution with a true commitment to research and teaching excellence within their field.

IOE is the number one university for education research in the UK with more world-leading submissions than the rest of the top 10 combined. This vital research informs the policies of governments, ministries, schools and universities and gives their teaching a current, real-world focus. Their expert academic staff are passionate about engaging with their students and teach directly on our programmes - just one of the reasons why IOE is top in the UK for student satisfaction.

IOE attracts students from over 100 countries to study on their renowned undergraduate and postgraduate courses. The IOE is:

- in the top three worldwide for research and impact in its field
- number one for education research in the UK
- officially ranked 7th in the world for education (QS World university rankings 2013)
- number one for student satisfaction (National Student Survey 2013)
- the UK's only specialist education university
- known for producing successful graduates with 93% of postgraduates in employment/further study six months after graduation
- based in a great Central London location.

ROYAL VETERINARY COLLEGE UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Founded in 1791, the Royal Veterinary College (RVC), University of London, is the UK's largest, oldest and only independent veterinary school and a highly-ranked centre for bioscience degrees and research. It was the driving force behind the establishment of the UK's veterinary profession and ever since then it has been at the forefront of teaching, research and practice in veterinary and biological sciences.

Based in Camden (London) and on a 575-acre site in Hertfordshire, its two campuses offer a friendly, supportive environment with state-of-the-art facilities for teaching and learning. The broad range of programmes (Biological Sciences, Bioveterinary Sciences, Veterinary Medicine and Veterinary Nursing) are of international appeal and attract students who go on to become practising veterinarians, animal and human health scientists, veterinary nurses and leaders in industry and government.

- The RVC's Bioveterinary Sciences course was the first of its kind in the UK and is consistently ranked within the top 10 of UK Biosciences courses.
- The Bioveterinary Sciences courses are accredited and recognised by the Society of Biology and received 100% student satisfaction ratings in 2011 and 2012.
- The RVC owns the London BioScience Innovation Centre (LBIC), London's largest bioscience incubator, which is home to over 40 biotechnology and life science companies - from small start-ups to more established players.
- In 2013, the RVC achieved the unique distinction of being the only veterinary school in the world to hold full accreditation from American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA), European Association of Establishments for Veterinary Education (EAEVE), Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons (RCVS) and Australasian Veterinary Boards Council Inc (AVBC).
- 93% of graduates find employment/further study within six months of graduating.

Accommodation in LONDON

London is home to more international students than any other city in the world. Every year, 90,000 people come from over 200 countries to study and experience the culture, the history and the spirit of one of the world's greatest cities.

Beaumont Court

Beaumont Court offers a great choice of shared flats in a fantastic London location, just 5 minutes' walk from Camden Town and a short journey from Islington, Bloomsbury and Leicester Square. The property has stunning views across London and is just 5 minutes' walk from King's Cross St Pancras.

The property has a fantastic roof terrace with impressive views across the London Eye, St Paul's Cathedral and the Shard.

Beaumont Court offers a range of en-suite rooms in shared flats with your own bathroom, study area, large bed and plenty of storage space. Shared kitchen and living areas are perfect for living with friends or meeting new people.

Piccadilly Court

Piccadilly Court is ideally located a stone's throw from Caledonian Road tube Station, on the Piccadilly Line.

The property offers en-suite rooms in a range of shared flats, so you can share with your friends, as well as studios if you'd prefer to live independently. The property has an onsite laundry, bike storage and a courtyard with outside seating.

All UNITE London student accommodation includes Wi-Fi, contents insurance and all utility bills in the price, so there are no unexpected costs to worry about.

Accommodation guaranteed until 31 July

To help you budget for your time in London, here is an example of what you can expect to pay, for some of the essentials of student life.

NEXT STEPS

STEP ONE

Submit your application by one of the following methods:

Online:
www.foundationcampus.com

Email:
admissions@foundationcampus.com

Fax:
+44 (0)1223 346181

Post:
Admissions Office, FoundationCampus, Kett House, Station Road, Cambridge, CB1 2JH, United Kingdom

Please remember to include all relevant documentation:

- Academic transcripts (with translations if not originally in English)
- Evidence of English level
- Passport

Other documentation may be required depending on the course, Admissions will advise.

STEP TWO

Our Central Admissions team will review your application.

- We will send you an offer letter which will list any outstanding conditions. We will remove any conditions that have already been met. If we think the course is not right for you, we will suggest an alternative.
- If we have any queries about your application, our Central Admissions team will contact you for further information.

STEP THREE

To accept your place on the course you will need to meet all the remaining conditions, including payment of the deposit/registration fee or proof of government sponsorship. Only once all conditions have been met, can your place be confirmed, although once the deposit is paid we will hold a place for you.

- Please note that if you require a visa to study with us, you may need to provide additional evidence to comply with the visa regulations in the country of study. These are the requirements of the government and not of FoundationCampus. Your assistance in meeting these requirements is much appreciated.

STEP FOUR

Once you have paid your deposit and met all the conditions of offer, we will confirm your place and send you a CAS (Confirmation of Acceptance to Study) or a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) if you do not need a CAS. If you need a visa, you will need to use your CAS/CoE to support your visa application. Please note a CAS can only be used 3 months before the start of the course.

- The accommodation application form will be included in the pre-arrival information sent to you. You should complete the form, selecting your preferred option and return it to London FoundationCampus by email to liveinlondon@foundationcampus.com.

STEP FIVE

You will then need to apply for a visa if you require one to study in the UK. It is your responsibility to obtain a visa before you travel to join the course. If you do not have a valid visa, you will not be able to join the course so please make sure you apply as soon as possible.

STEP SIX

You will need to pay at least the first term's tuition fees before you begin your programme of study at FoundationCampus.

- Students should arrive on the weekend before the start of term, please check your CAS statement or Confirmation of Enrolment for further details.
