Why study at Eynesbury?

- The University of Adelaide is consistently ranked in the top one percent of universities in the world (Based on the Times Higher Education Supplement, QS and Shanghai Jiao Tong Rankings).
- The University is one of Australia's oldest and most prestigious tertiary institutions offering over 135 years of excellence in education.
- Eynesbury provides a diverse range of higher education pathways that successfully prepares students for studies at the University of Adelaide.
- Adelaide is Australia's most affordable mainland capital city (Source: Economist Intelligence Unit 2013).

YOUR PATHWAY TO SUCCESS

Founded in 1989, Eynesbury has an outstanding record of academic achievement and is experienced in delivering programs tailored for international students. Eynesbury incorporates Eynesbury College, Eynesbury College Academy of English and the Eynesbury Institute of Business and Technology. Together, they offer a range of programs and educational pathways to tertiary studies at the University of Adelaide. Eynesbury is part of the global Navitas Group, an internationally recognised education provider with more than 110 colleges and campuses worldwide.

Message from the University of Adelaide's Vice-Chancellor

The University of Adelaide offers a unique and immensely rewarding learning experience for all students through the union of learning and research in our undergraduate programs.

The University's long association with Eynesbury demonstrates a firm commitment to helping international students prepare for success in their undergraduate studies. In partnership, we offer a wonderful opportunity for international students to meet and study with Australian students in a highly supportive environment that features small classes and careful attention to individual needs.

I warmly encourage you to consider Eynesbury to prepare for your chosen undergraduate program at the University of Adelaide.

Professor Warren Bebbington
Vice-Chancellor and President
The University of Adelaide

Message from the Eynesbury College Director

At Eynesbury, we welcome the opportunity to assist our students to achieve their personal goals and realise their full potential.

Eynesbury is committed to offering choice, diversity and flexibility of pathways in education. Our staff provide the personal encouragement and individual tuition that most international students need when they first live away from home.

Eynesbury also offers a full range of student support services, including academic and vocational counselling, homestay and accommodation at international student residences.

Adelaide is a wonderful place to live and study, and I am confident that you will enjoy your Eynesbury experience.

Peter Millen
College Director
Eynesbury

The University of Adelaide

The University of Adelaide is one of Australia's leading Group of Eight universities and is consistently ranked among the top 1% of universities in the world.

Established in 1874, the University of Adelaide is Australia's third oldest university and an iconic Adelaide institution. The University has a strong reputation for research and teaching excellence and producing graduates that make an impact on the world. The University has produced 106 Rhodes Scholars, including Australia's first indigenous winner, and 121 Fulbright Scholars with five Nobel Laureates among its alumni community.

The University of Adelaide is a comprehensive university, offering a broad range of undergraduate programs underpinned by world-class research and placing high priority on the student learning experience. The University's strong reputation for providing quality face-to-face instruction is backed up by excellent electronic resources including extensive online teaching tools.

With more than 25,000 students, the University is small enough to provide personal interaction with teaching staff, yet large enough to offer a wide range of programs, student support services and vibrant campus life. The University of Adelaide is strongly committed to international education, with around 30 per cent of international students from around 90 countries among its current student population. The annual Graduate Careers Australia survey places the university in the top tier of Australian universities for teacher quality, skills development and overall student satisfaction.

The University of Adelaide's historic main campus is located in the centre of Adelaide city. It is the primary location for teaching undergraduate programs. The North Terrace Campus blends sandstone heritage with state-of-the-art facilities including the innovative $100 million engineering, computer and mathematical sciences building – awarded Australia's first 6 Star Green Star rating for an education building – and a new student learning space, Hub Central, which has revolutionised the on-campus student environment, bringing learning and social spaces together in the heart of the campus.

Why choose Eynesbury?

Eynesbury has been a registered provider of international programs for more than 20 years and has been successfully preparing students for study at the University of Adelaide since 1992.

The Eynesbury advantage

- Teaching excellence: Eynesbury teaching staff are specialists in their field and are among the most highly qualified and experienced teachers in Australia.
- Pre-university and undergraduate degree pathways: Eynesbury offers international students a comprehensive range of educational pathways to the University of Adelaide, including senior secondary studies, Foundation and Diploma programs.

- Learning environment: Eynesbury offers a learning environment that is extremely supportive and focused on individual student needs. Eynesbury's state-of-the-art learning facilities means students have access to the tools required to achieve their academic potential.
- Small class sizes: Eynesbury's academic classes usually have no more than 35 students and English language classes are restricted to a maximum of 18 students.

- Campus location: The Eynesbury Coglein Street and Franklin Street campuses are located in the heart of the city in close proximity to the Adelaide Central Market and Gouger Street restaurant precinct. The campuses are also within walking distance to the University of Adelaide.
- Campus facilities: Eynesbury campuses offer wireless technology throughout, kitchen facilities, quiet study areas, student computers and breakout areas for studying or relaxing.
- Accommodation: Adelaide is a safe and affordable place to live. Eynesbury's dedicated accommodation team can organise airport pick-up, as well as accommodation allocation and referral services.

Pathways to the University of Adelaide

Eynesbury is a specialist institution that offers a modern and dynamic learning experience, and is committed to offering choice, diversity and flexibility of pathways in education. Eynesbury offers a range of pre-university, undergraduate and English language programs.

Eynesbury Foundation Studies Program

Since 1992 Eynesbury has provided the Foundation Studies Program (FSP) on behalf of the University of Adelaide.

Students studying the FSP are given provisional entry into a bachelor degree program of their choice at the University of Adelaide. Upon achievement of the required entry score for their nominated degree program, students are given entry into the University for the next intake period.

For details of entry scores for degrees, please consult the university's undergraduate prospectus at adelaide.edu.au/publications/international.

Certificate IV in Tertiary Preparation Program

The Certificate IV in Tertiary Preparation Program prepares students for entry into an Eynesbury Diploma. It is designed for students who have completed the equivalent of Year 11 at an Australian high school and/or need to undertake further study before starting an Eynesbury Diploma.

Diploma of Business

The Diploma of Business introduces students to the fundamental knowledge required to successfully undertake a range of business undergraduate degree programs at the University of Adelaide.

Diploma of Computing and Information Technology

The Diploma of Computing and Information Technology provides the basis for future study of the University of Adelaide's Bachelor of Computer Science. Students in this program will be introduced to the key skills required of an information technology professional.

Diploma of Engineering

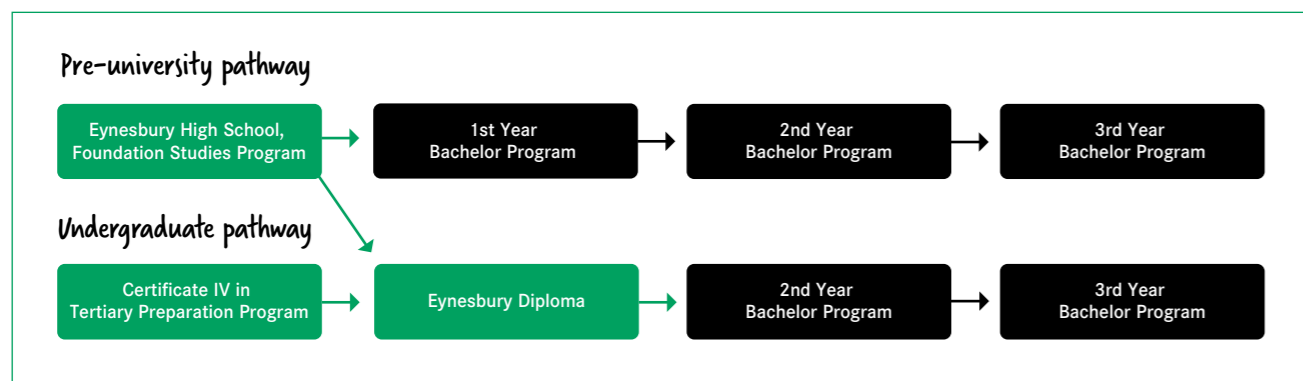

The Diploma of Engineering is designed to provide students with the necessary skills, knowledge and understanding that will enable them to articulate into a range of degrees in the University of Adelaide's Faculty of Engineering, Computer & Mathematical Sciences.

Eynesbury College Academy of English

The Eynesbury College Academy of English provides high quality English Language programs that are taught by qualified Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL). The Academy is a member of English Australia and accredited by the Australian Government.

Program accreditation

Eynesbury is a registered Higher Education Provider, approved by the Australian Government. The College delivers programs which comply with the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2007 which is established under the Commonwealth Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000.

* Students may not be eligible to select programs with fixed quotas.

"Eynesbury offers personalised teaching in an environment that is supportive and friendly."

My Eynesbury: Rachel Yik Tung, Hong Kong Business

Eynesbury Coglin Street Campus

Student support services

Eynesbury is committed to helping students achieve their goals by offering comprehensive student support services.

Eynesbury has a dedicated team of student support staff that provides a range of advice, information, personal support and counselling to students throughout their studies at Eynesbury.

Eynesbury encourages all students to engage with the student support services the College has to offer and to contact the friendly staff for assistance when needed.

Once enrolled, Eynesbury offers a compulsory orientation program for all new students. During orientation students will:

- choose and enrol in courses and create their own timetable
- meet staff and current students
- get to know new classmates
- receive student ID card
- tour the campus facilities
- visit the University of Adelaide.

Student experience program

Eynesbury prides itself on providing an outstanding student experience by integrating events and activities into student life.

Eynesbury's Student Experience Coordinator is committed to offering a wide range of social and recreational activities that enables students to interact with both local and international students more freely. These activities are often where friendships are forged, networks are established and life long memories are made.

The Student Experience program caters to all students, regardless of age and background and involves the following activities:

- Barbecues
- Bushwalking
- Sporting events
- Cultural events
- Student leadership programs and forums
- Job search support and volunteering
- Interview skills workshops

Adelaide: the safe and affordable choice for international students

Quality education, affordable living and a vibrant culture make Adelaide the perfect choice for international students.

Adelaide is a safe, friendly, cosmopolitan city with a population of 1.2 million and a relaxed outdoor lifestyle. The city is surrounded by 900 hectares of lush green parklands and is situated only 20 minutes from white sandy beaches.

For three years in succession, Adelaide has remained Australia's most liveable city according to a report released by the Property Council of Australia. Importantly, Adelaide has also been rated Australia's safest city according to statistics compiled for the Suncorp Bank Friendly City Report.

Things to see and do in and around Adelaide

Adelaide is Australia's festival city and prides itself on art and culture. There is plenty to see and do while living in Adelaide:

- Music and cultural festivals and events are popular, with Adelaide hosting local and international acts throughout the year, including the internationally renowned Adelaide Festival of Arts, Adelaide Fringe and WOMA Adelaide World Music Festival.
- The Adelaide Central Market is the city's most visited tourist attraction offering over 80 stalls and has been the centre for multi-cultural cuisine for over 140 years.
- Adelaide is Australia's food and wine capital, with more restaurants per capita than any other Australian city.
- The city is a popular venue for national and international sporting events,

- including international cricket matches and the Tour Down Under cycling race
- Adelaide offers a world-class art gallery and museum, live theatre and music complexes, a vibrant nightclub district and a major entertainment centre.

For more information go to southaustralia.com/events.

Cost of living

The cost of living in Adelaide is lower than in any other mainland capital city in Australia. Living expenses for an international student in Adelaide will vary depending on individual lifestyle, but can be expected to be:

- 25 percent less expensive than living in Melbourne
- 24 percent less expensive than living in Sydney
- 11 percent less expensive than living in Perth
- 10 percent less expensive than living in Brisbane.

Climate

Adelaide offers a Mediterranean climate with four distinct seasons that include:

- Warm, dry summers with an average maximum temperature of 35°C
- Cool winters with no snow at an average maximum temperature of 16°C

Adelaide's climate is perfect for enjoying outdoor sporting and social activities.

Navitas bursaries and scholarships

Navitas family bursaries

Navitas offers financial support in the form of family bursaries. A bursary applies where two or more students from the same family study with a Navitas member institution.* The bursary is equivalent to 10 percent of the tuition fee of your program of study.†

Do I qualify?

Has your husband, wife, brother, sister, mother, father, son, daughter or stepchild previously studied at, or are they currently studying at, a Navitas member institution*? If yes, then you may qualify!

How do I apply?

Pick up an application from the Navitas institution where you have enrolled and submit together with supporting documents such as a birth certificate or family card. These documents will vary depending on the country where you plan to study.

How will I receive my bursary?

If you qualify, then 10 percent of your tuition fee will be credited to your account each academic term. This amount will vary based on the number of units being undertaken. Note that the bursary applies to the first program of study and does not apply to additional units or repeat units that may also be undertaken.

Adelaide International Undergraduate Scholarship

The 2014 University of Adelaide scholarships are currently under review. For further information visit adelaide.edu.au/study/international/scholarships/

Eynesbury scholarships

Eynesbury offers a range of competitive scholarships as well as ELICOS bursaries.

For further information visit eynesburynavitas.com.

* The Navitas family bursary and academic merit scholarships are offered to students studying at ACBT, ACN, AUSI, BCUIIC, Curtin College, Curtin University Sydney, Curtin Singapore, CRIC, EIBT, EIC, Eynesbury, FIC, HIC, ICM, ICP, ICRGU, ICWS, La Trobe Melbourne, LBIC, Macquarie City Campus, MIBT, MIBT Indonesia, Navitas at UMass Boston, Navitas at UMass Dartmouth, Navitas at UMass Lowell, Navitas at WKU, Navitas at UNH, NIC, PIBT, PUIC, QIBT, SAIBT, SIBT and UCIC only.

† Certificate programs may also be known or registered as Foundation Studies or University Transfer Program Stage I. Diploma programs may also be known or registered as Undergraduate Pathway, University Transfer Program (UTP), University Transfer Program Stage II or University Pathways Program (UPP). The Navitas bursary is not applicable to any English language program or any component of an English language program offered by a Navitas member institution.
